OBJECTIVE

my objective is to design, communicate, improve and enjoy it

Graphic design is a essential component of communication. Design increases the clarity, power and effectiveness of communication. Communication, with all its facets and complexity, ends up being about people and ideas. This is similar to how I see myself.

I can draw. I am good with plenty of software. I'm great at learning. I can lead or follow or work on my own. But I really shine when it comes to people and ideas.

Please visit my web site to see my work and learn more about me.

I can provide references and my portfolio upon request.

EXPERIENCE

scripps networks

Visual Designer

FEBRUARY 2009 - JUNE 2009

Worked as part of interactive team of visual designers, collaborating on web-based advertisements for Fortune 500 companies to be shown on HGTV.com and Foodnetwork.com. Responsible for quickly producing and archiving technically accurate files and code to be used in deployment process. All of this was done while adhering to strict identity guidelines for each client.
